NACM Connect

Kegler Brown Hill + Ritter

8:45–9:30 Collections From Beginning to End

Effective techniques to assure effective collections, starting with obtaining adequate information in the credit application, understanding the legal attributes of various business forms and how collections differ for each, and a review of the various tools that can be used to meet the challenges of collecting a judgment.

9:30–10:15 Best Practices for Managing Privacy and Security Risks

From rogue employees and lost back up tapes, to ransomware: there is no such thing as a routine breach. Join us for a discussion on the importance of understanding your company's legal and contractual obligations for security data, and real world best practices for your business, based on what you do and who you work with.

10:15–10:30 Break

10:30–11:15 Ins and Outs of Accounts Receivable

Receivables as a credit management and business financing device, as well as the use of insurance to reduce or eliminate credit risk.

11:15–12:00 What's New in Bankruptcy

Update on current developments of interest to credit managers in business bankruptcy cases, including a review of new and emerging theories to defend against preference recovery claims.
